Family Housing - Families who are experiencing homelessness receive intensive case management, advocacy services and subsidized rental housing. Most of the families we work with have major barriers to their future housing stability. Emphasis is on securing permanent housing and increasing life skills, parenting skills, education, and employment to assist in maintaining housing into the future. Uniquely, this program utilizes subsidized, supportive rental housing for families with children, both single site and scattered site, both transitional and permanent housing. In calendar year 2013, a total of 194 families with 421 children participated in the family housing program. Adding the Family Roots Alliance, our partnership with Lutheran Social Services, we served a total of 392 families.

Thousands of hours of service are provided by volunteers.

We accomplish this work through partnerships with two community agencies: St. Stephen's Human Services, and Spectrum Mental Health. Referred to as the Collaboration of Housing Resources (COHR), the partnership of these three agencies consists of four program teams. Simpson believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

A major emphasis of the family housing program is to break the generational cycle of homelessness by increasing positive family dynamics through parenting and family workshops, experiential learning outings, reading focused tutoring and educational advocacy for school-age children. In the 2013 - 2014 school year, 63% of Reading by Third grade students demonstrated more than one year's academic growth during the school year, and 97% of parents with an Education Support Advocate attended a parent-teacher conference.

Our unique niche in the community is working with individuals & families whose prolonged periods of homelessness & precarious housing stem from challenges such as: institutional racism, generational poverty, family violence, mental illness and chemical dependency. Simpson's commitment is to help participants start down the path to housing stability using the housing first philosophy: provide homeless people with housing quickly and then provide services as needed. Our distinctive assets include: respectful and dignified service centered on a commitment of participants' wellbeing, strong leadership, respected advocates and staff, a collaborative and adaptable approach, a dedicated corps of volunteers, and a mix of single-site and scattered-site housing.

Accountability and ongoing program evaluation are key components of our work. Goal achievement is measured annually and at the time the Simpson Housing Services hosts the weekly lottery for 28-day shelter beds at the 3 privately funded shelters in Minneapolis. The shelter provides a toe-hold back into housing for people experiencing homelessness.

The shelter engages volunteers from the community in providing nightly hot meals and the awake presence for overnight guests. In 2013, Volunteers provided coverage for 93% of the nights. 157 overnight volunteers shared 8975.6 hours of service.

Of those in the program that we lead, 80% were stably housed in 2013.

Mental Health formed a partnership to provide increased supportive services to residents at Aeon's Opportunity Housing Program properties (specifically the Lamoreaux and the Continental). The properties offer efficiency apartments, some with shared bathroom and kitchens, for long-term homeless individuals. The program utilizes GRH (Group Residential Housing) funding from Hennepin County to provide housing and services to new residents. Residents are connected to an onsite case manager who meets with them on a regular basis. The supportive services team also builds upon the current "Resident Connections" program to provide resources and community engagement opportunities for residents. In calendar year 2013 these programs served 24 participants with case management through GRH and 86 participants with resident connections support.
