dynamics through experiential learning outings, reading-focused tutoring, educational advocacy for school-age children, and one-on-one mentoring for children K-8th grade. In the 2017 - 2018 school year, 87% of children improved their reading and literacy skills and 92% students demonstrated an increase in positive identity indicators.

Our unique niche in the community is working with individuals and families whose prolonged periods of homelessness and precarious housing stem from challenges such as institutional racism, generational poverty, family violence, mental illness and chemical dependency.

Simpson's commitment is to help participants start down the path to housing stability using the Housing First philosophy: provide people experiencing homelessness with housing quickly and then provide support services as needed. Our distinctive assets include respectful and dignified service centered on a commitment of participants' wellbeing, strong leadership, respected advocates and staff, a collaborative and adaptable approach, a dedicated corps of volunteers, and a mix of site-based and scattered-site housing.
